Appingham news

Hope's Song

I believe in the Son of God truly.
Because He loves me.
When I am sick and Mama prays;
He will reach down his hand
And heal me.
Jesus loves me truly... always,
When I am at home or in Heaven.

CHG

I copied this down last week as my five year old daughter was singing and swinging in the yard. She made up the words and tune. It shows we are not hindered by age when it comes to having faith in God.

Mt. Pleasant Church news

"I will praise thee, O Lord with my whole heart; I will shew forth all thy marvelous works."Psalms 9:1

We were very glad to have so many friends, visitors and members to come and worship with us on our pastor's third anniversary at Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church in Hixburg, on Sunday, April 27 at 4 p.m.

The guest minister for the hour was Rev. J. E. McLaughlin and his choir from St. Luke Baptist Church, Brookneal.

He preached a wonderful message and the choir sang beautifully. The presentations of the clubs, the organization and the offering were very good. It was enjoyed by all.

We thank each and everyone who came out to help make that program a success.

On Saturday morning, May 3, at King's Market, there will be a bake sale for the benefit of the Mt. Pleasant Church. Please stop by and buy your goods for the week end.

On Saturday night, May 3, at 7 p.m. the Echo of Glory from Triumph will render a program of songs at Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church.

The public is cordially invited to come and enjoy an evening of gospel singing.

Our prayers go out for all the sick and shut-in everywhere.

Named alternate in scholarship program

Leslie Ferguson

Leslie Ferguson, daughter of Betty Daymude and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Vernell Mitchell of Appomattox County, has been named an alternate in the 1980 National Honor Society Scholarship Program.

She is a graduating senior at Altavista High School, and was chosen from among 11,000 nominees across the nation.

Each participating National Honor Society Chapter in the U.S. was allowed to nominate two senior members who have demonstrated outstanding leadership, scholarship, character, and service. Student nominees completed a scholarship selection questionnaire and secondary school forms that aided the Scholarship Selection Board in assessing their participation in service organizations, clubs, and athletics; achievements in the arts and sciences; employment experience; and academic record.

The National Honor Society Scholarship Program is sponsored by the National Association of Secondary School Principals.
